

Bringing regional artisanal products right into the heart of Bristol

Cotswold Taste member, Mike Anderson from Hales Events, organises specialist exhibitions and trade shows, is so excited to be partnering with the new Source Roadshow that is taking place at Ashton Gate on 16th June 2022 'Inspiration and opportunity on a plate'.

The 2022 Source Roadshow brings the perfect mix of passionate producers alongside the hottest hospitality and catering companies, and the freshest food service. There are 150 exhibitors taking part at this trade roadshow from hospitality and catering to food retail. Find out more about this amazing food and drink trade show, and register to attend, at bristol.thesourcetradeshow.co.uk

This new Bristol event brings regional, artisanal products right into the heart of Bristol where producers will be able to share their knowledge and expertise with buyers from the city. It's your opportunity to meet a fantastic selection of food and hospitality businesses all in under one roof, in Bristol – from high quality produce to innovative equipment, EPoS systems, to business services. Meet key South West, UK and international food and drink producers, as well as service providers, alongside a superb selection of Taste of the West (the regional food group) and BARBIE (Bristol Association of Restaurants, Bars and Independent Establishments) members.

If you're buying food and drink, to reflect the ever-changing needs of your customers, there's nothing quite like a face-to-face event for you to test, touch and taste and add value to your offering. Keep up with the latest developments and spot fresh opportunities. Discover remarkable local products with fascinating provenance stories to tell and spend valuable time with passionate producers and knowledgeable suppliers face-to-face. Buyers can compare different flavours and textures, build relationships with new partners, catch up with colleagues, clients and friends, as well as get a feel for the latest trends.
