

Emergent Generation 2022

Friday 2 September
FarmED

Welcome & Aims: The Challenge
Introduced by Jonty Brunyee
& Ian Wilkinson
Our Why
Hear from The Emergent Generation

Getting to Know Each Other

Lunch at FarmEAT

Exploring Agroecological Concepts
An interactive workshop

FarmED Walk & Talk: Agroecology in Action
Discuss and critique examples of applied agroecology
Led by Ian Wilkinson &
Jonty Brunyee

Your reflections on agroecology
What opportunities can you spot?
Are there synergies with your interests?

What does it mean to be a young champion in an agroecological and regenerative future?
Russ Carrington joined by young people currently making waves

Travel RAU

Dinner Speaker: TBA

Dinner / Bar open until 11pm

Saturday 3 September
RAU & CONYGREE FARM

Movement / Yoga / Reflections

Whose sustainability is it anyway?

In this panel discussion we will explore western perceptions of sustainability, the histories that have framed it, and the global impact of colonialism on land and people.

Panelists: Marion Atieno Osieyo (Global Strategist – Nature’s Contributions to People, WWF). Others TBA soon.

BREAKOUT ONE:

*Being an Ecoentrepreneur led by David Bozward led by David Bozward
Exploring the entrepreneur’s mindset, how this balances with purpose driven enterprise and how to use the business model canvas to test your ideas.

BREAKOUT TWO:

*Integrated Local Delivery led by Jenny Phelps MBE
Using tools easily accessible online, you can leave this interactive session with an insight into what it takes to be a community facilitator.

Lunch & Travel to Conygree Farm

Practical Sessions Options

Developing a Diverse Organic Farm Business – explore pastured livestock systems, tourism diversification and wildlife conservation with farm tenant Jonty Brunyee.

TBC Foraging in the Conygree Meadows, Hedgerows and Woods
– led by a Cotswolds forager

Dry Stone Walling Practical – learn the basics with Melissa Brunyee

How to Create A Bio Intensive Market Garden From Scratch – led by new entrant growers James Butterworth and Balam Weiner Gomez Baker

BBQ Food & Drink

TBC Tackling eco-anxiety through mindfulness with Holly Beckett (TBC)

Campfire, Dinner, Stories, Music

Sunday 4 September

FarmED

Welcome & Aims: The Challenge

Introduced by Jonty Brunyee & Ian Wilkinson

Our Why, Reflections from Day 1 & 2 – Led by a member of The Emergent Generation

TBC The Importance of Good Nutrition for Young People's Health led by Kate Henderson

In conversation with Dr. Sally Bell, Dr. Lucy Williamson and Jane Williamson we'll look at what might be on a sustainable plate and why it's important for our gut health, mood and wellbeing.

Panel Discussion: Our food system – what do we need now?

We'll explore the complex issues within our local and global food system including: food security, government farming & food policy, food culture and the true cost.

Panelists: Jyoti Fernandes (LWA) TBC, Warami Jackson, Others TBA soon.

Being A Young Regen Farmer or Grower: Case Studies From The Field

Hear from a range of new enterprising regenerative farmers and growers including Farming George, Tim May (TBC), Khalil Radwan Willowbrook Farm, and others.

Lunch at FarmEAT

The Story of The Black Farmer – Wilfred Emmanuel-Jones

BREAK 10 mins

OPTION SESSIONS

'Present decisions, past inspirations, future scenarios'

A workshop with Chris Smaje

Come with your questions and explore how small agroecological startup businesses fit into the wider economic and political landscape. By placing present obstacles into wider contexts, see what we can learn by thinking about past models and future scenarios.

TBC How can agroecology help us live within the safe and just space for humanity?

TBC Who's who in youth?

Meet young people from movements that are making strides in their areas.

How to Communicate Your Story with Anna Jones

Learn how to tell your story with experienced and well-known journalist, broadcaster, blogger and Nuffield Farming Scholar.

FarmED Walk & Talk – led by Ian Wilkinson

Meet new entrant and young farmer Hallum Duckworth, explore earthworms with the FarmED intern Danielle Semple and learn about the market garden located at FarmED – The Kitchen Garden People.

Closing Session: Your Next Steps

Explore the next steps for The Emergent Generation and this group of people.